Scottish Smallbore Rifle Association Grand Prix 3

Saturday 10th June & Sunday 11th June, 2017 at the range Wick Old Stagers, Thurso Road, Wick, Caithness

The Caithness meeting is a two-day open shoot at 50 metres and 100 yards. At the outdoor range of Wick Old Stagers beside the River Wick off the Thurso Road.

The Open Meeting hosts an event in the SSRA Grand Prix 50m Championship series. This is shot on Saturday afternoon. Sunday is fully taken up with the Mowat Cup, which is the Caithness Open Championship and the meeting closes with discs competitions and the presentation of prizes and trophies.

The SSRA Open competition, in 4 classes, is the elimination for the A&B and C&D Grand Prix matches. The A&B Grand Prix is for the leading 16 competitors in the Open competition in A & B classes and consists of a qualification match of 60 shots at 50 metres and a final, both shot as far as possible under ISSF rules. The leading 8 in the qualification match then take part in the final and the result is determined by the aggregate of the scores of the qualification match and the final. The C&D Grand Prix is for the leading 10 competitors in C & D classes in the Open competitions and consists of 60 shots at 50 metres under NSRA rules.

Catering will be available on the range.

Accommodation: There are ample inexpensive bed & breakfasts and guest houses in Wick. Help finding accommodation can be obtained from the Tourist Schedule: All details commence on the hour and half hour except the Grand Prix final. Some free range space will be available during squadded competitions.
